

How to transfer Forest Roads to GPS procedure

To transfer forest roads in your GPS, you must take the roads, which are in a SoftMap database, and copy them in a GPS database. Here is the way to proceed.

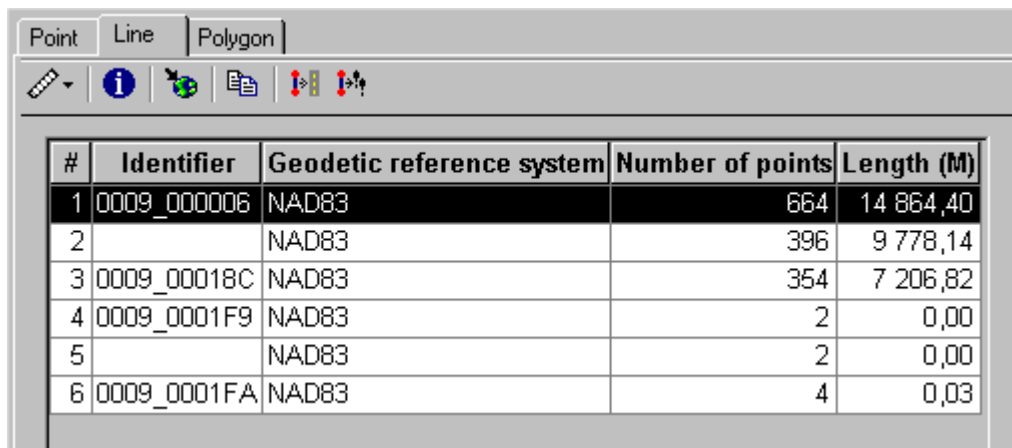

1. Click on the rectangular selection tool .
2. Make a rectangle that includes the roads you want to send to the GPS. More often than not, the roads contain a lot of points and we suggest not to select a large quantity of roads at the same time. Otherwise, the transfer time will be long and the quantity of information may be too important for your GPS receiver. Consult your GPS user guide to know its limits.

NOTE: It is essential to select at least two roads to have access to the transfer.

3. Click on the Information button .

4. In the Information box, click on the Line tab.

#	Identifier	Geodetic reference system	Number of points	Length (M)
1	0009_000006	NAD83	664	14 864,40
2		NAD83	396	9 778,14
3	0009_00018C	NAD83	354	7 206,82
4	0009_0001F9	NAD83	2	0,00
5		NAD83	2	0,00
6	0009_0001FA	NAD83	4	0,03

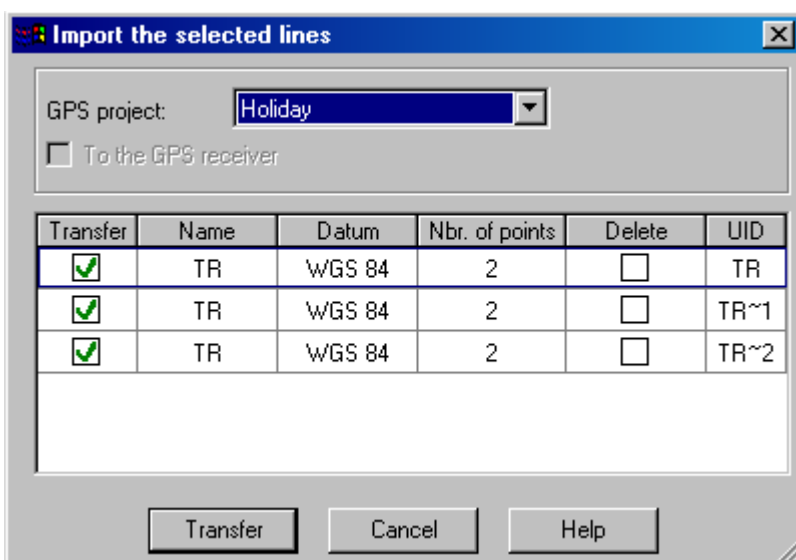

5. Select all segments in the dialog box.

#	Identifier	Geodetic reference system	Number of points	Length (M)
1	0009_000006	NAD83	664	14 864,40
2		NAD83	396	9 778,14
